

LATEST NEWS AND GOSSIP IN SOCIETY'S CIRCLE

FAIRBANKS' DINNER
ON DECEMBER 15

Date for First State Function
by Vice President and Wife.

ROOTS ENTERTAIN NEXT

Last Few Dinners in Early Spring, to Finish Before Ash Wednesday.

The Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks will lead off in the state dinners as usual, and entertain the President and Mrs. Roosevelt on December 15, in their Washington home. Mrs. Fairbanks will join the Vice President in Florida tomorrow, and together they will return to Washington for Thanksgiving.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Root will be the next to entertain the President and Mrs. Roosevelt at dinner, the date being December 20, and the other members of the Cabinet, in the order of their precedence, will do the same, the last few dinners being set for the spring season, as Ash Wednesday will come before they can get entirely around the circle.

The ever-growing list of debutantes has been augmented by the announcement of the coming debut of Miss Eunice Calderhead, of Kansas, who with her sister, Miss Agnes, will accompany their father to Washington this winter. Miss Agnes will not be presented to society until next season. Miss Eunice will make her bow some time before Christmas.

Of interest to their friends in Washington will be the announcement of the marriage of Rexford K. Swartz, of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Ida Atwater, of Scranton, Pa., which will be solemnized in Atlanta tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. H. Brown. The ceremony being performed by the pastor of the cathedral in Atlanta, Mr. Swartz, who is secretary to the department of the division of the international Correspondence School in Atlanta, is a brother-in-law of Herbert B. Collins, in the solicitor's office of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Miss Atwater was recently the guest for a short while of Mr. and Mrs. Collins in this city.

Mrs. James Pinchot will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of her daughter, the Hon. Lady Alan Johnston, wife of the British minister to Denmark.

Miss Ellen Day Hale is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hale, in their apartment, in the Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase and their son Harold left Washington last night for a hunting trip through Virginia.

Marvin Seale, of Pittsburg, who occupies a handsome suite of apartments in the Connecticut, returned to Washington last night after a short stay in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard was the hostess at luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Katherine Jennings, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jennings. Her guests were Miss Goldsborough, Miss Magruder, Miss Trecoff, Miss Slater, Miss Chubb, Miss Lillian Stone, Miss Newlands, Miss Mary Southland, Miss Hoyt, Miss Madeline Bradley, and Miss Alice Shepherd.

Mme. Pastor, wife of the Spanish charge d'affaires, will be at home today for the first time in their new home, 1212 Q street.

Prince Lymar, of the German embassy, has left Washington for a few days in New York.

The British ambassador left Washington today to be one of the speakers at the New York Chamber of Commerce dinner. He will also attend the St. Andrew's dinner, November 29.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Edward N. Eberle entertained at dinner last night in honor of their guest, Miss Blount, of Florida. The guests were Miss Elsie McLean, Miss Margaret Leighton, David LeBreton, Stephen Rowan, and John Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Brewster have returned to Washington, and have taken the house 1212 Connecticut avenue for the winter. Miss Mary Brewster, their daughter, is one of the season's debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan H. Sample and their daughter, Elsie Sample, of 1007 Thirteenth street, leave Washington tomorrow for an extended Western trip.

James U. Horne, a former Washington resident, and Miss Ethel-Burns, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Burke, of Atlanta, will be married tonight in the home of the bride's mother.

Miss Nellie Florence Rowe will be married tonight in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Rowe, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be attended only by the immediate family and will be followed by a reception from 8:30 to 10.

Miss Virginia Hunter will be the bride's only attendant and Harry Allen will act as best man.

Senor Don Luis F. Corea, the Nicaraguan minister to the United States, left Washington this morning for New Orleans and will sail from there Saturday for Nicaragua. He will be absent from Washington until the first of the year.

James G. Whiteley, consul general for the Congo Free State, who has spent the summer in Brussels, has returned to his home in Washington. Mr. Whiteley was a guest at the royal palace at luncheon and dinner several times and was otherwise considerably entertained during his stay there. For the past two weeks he has been spending the most of his time in New York and the last few days have been in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buncker, who left town for San Francisco last week in accordance with their usual custom of wintering in Washington, returned last night. Mr. Buncker has represented the California Chamber of Commerce for several years past and was called to San Francisco in connection with his business interests affected by the recent earthquake and fire. The Bunckers are reckoned among the most hospitable of outside residents and their return is a source of sincere congratulation among an extended circle.

Ex-Senator and Mrs. William E. Chandler returned to Washington last night from a summer and early autumn spent at Waterloo, their New Hampshire country place, where they entertained house parties throughout the season. Mrs. Chandler's health is almost restored and she is enabled to enjoy long walks, which exercise has been denied her for some time past.

Miss Terry Entertains
In Miss Williams' Honor

Season's Buds Guests at Luncheon—Mrs. Grinnell the Guest of Her Parents, General and Mrs. O. H. Ernst.

Miss Eleanor Terry, daughter of Rear Admiral Silas W. Terry, U. S. N., retired, former commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, entertained a luncheon company today in honor of Miss Julietta Williams, one of the season's buds. Her other guests were Miss Lydia Miller, of Baltimore; Miss Frances Goldsborough, Miss Miriam Crosby, Miss Clochette Magruder, Miss Mary Southland, and Miss Katherine Jennings.

Mrs. Grinnell, widow of the late William Morton Grinnell, of New York, is spending a few weeks with her parents, Gen. and Mrs. Q. H. Ernst, in their Connecticut avenue home. Mrs. Grinnell with her two small children will sail on December 4 for Europe, where they will spend the coming year. Mrs. Grinnell has taken apartments in Paris for the winter, where the parents of her late husband have lived for some years. Mrs. Grinnell was formerly Miss Elizabeth Lee Ernst, of this city.

The First Secretary of the American Embassy in London and Mrs. John Ridgely Carter, who have been the guests of Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. D. P. Morgan, in New York, for several weeks, will return to London next week. They will leave their young daughter, Miss Mildred Carter, with her grandmother for the winter, who has taken the house 70 Park avenue, New York, which was formerly the home of the Oliver Harrimans. Mrs. Morgan will present Miss Carter and her other granddaughter, Miss Gladys Kissel, to society next Wednesday afternoon at a tea, and on the evening of December 21 she will give a large ball for the buds. Mrs. Morgan's Washington home is leased to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who will come here again this winter, arriving some time next week. Mr. and Mrs. Carter must be in London before the departure from there, of the Ambassador and Mrs. Whiteley Reid, who will spend some time in this country during the coming winter.

Playmaster and Mrs. J. H. Merriam, who have as their guests Mr. and Mrs.

Kennedy, of Philadelphia, entertained at tea in their honor yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Donelson Caffery, of Franklin, La., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Caffery to Henry Haywood Glasie, a well-known member of the Washington bar.

Miss Caffery is also well known in Washington, having made her debut here during her father's term as Senator from Louisiana.

Representative and Mrs. Sydney E. Mudd have cards out for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Eleanor Virginia Mudd to Joseph Carlisle Wilmer, son of Gen. L. Allison Wilmer.

The wedding will take place Thanksgiving Day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mudd, at La Plata, Md.

Miss Julia Muschette will be the maid of honor for Miss Mudd and J. Wilmer will act as best man.

Miss Mudd is well known in Washington, having spent several seasons here with her parents. Mr. Wilmer was formerly the representative from Charles county in the Maryland Legislature, and is now appraiser for the port of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Milliken have issued cards announcing the marriage of their sister, Miss Sallie Vawter Harris, and Theodore J. Pickett, Wednesday, November 14, at 4 o'clock. After December 1, Mr. and Mrs. Pickett will make their home at 1913 Biltmore street.

Mrs. David J. Brewer, wife of Mr. Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, left Washington this morning for Burlington, where she will be the guest of relatives until after Thanksgiving.

Miss Irene Rodier made her debut last evening at her home on W street, which was thronged with her many friends. A brunette, possessed of extreme beauty of face and form, she is certain to be one of the foremost leaders in the dolmets of her set this winter. She has recently returned from abroad, where she has been pursuing the study of voice culture.

Miss Hatch and Miss Dashiell presided at the punch bowl.

The house was tastefully decorated with smilax and yellow chrysanthemums.

MISS SECKENDORFF
BECOMES A BRIDE

Count's Daughter Married
This Afternoon to Fleming
Newbold of Washington.

WEDDING IN COUNTRY HOME

Several Society Folk of the Capital in New Jersey to Attend Nuptials.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Seckendorff, daughter of Count Max G. Seckendorff, to Fleming Newbold, of this city, which takes place this afternoon in the summer home of the family, Ramapo Farms, near Ramsey, N. J., is of great interest to Washington society. The bride will have among her attendants Mr. Newbold's niece, Miss Frances Noyes, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes, and Miss Carolyn Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Huff, of Washington, Charles Lowe, of Dayton, Ohio, cousin of Mr. Newbold, will act as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noyes, who have taken a house here for the winter, the former home of the late General Meigs, recently occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Reginald de Koven; John L. Newbold, brother of the bridegroom, and the parents of the bridegroom, have gone to the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newbold, and Mrs. John Newbold did not go, because of the illness of Thomas Newbold, another brother.

The bride is a debutante of about two years ago. Mr. Newbold is a member of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs.

Miss Catherine Ridgely, daughter of the Comptroller of the Currency and Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely, entertained a party of twenty-four last night at Chase's Theater, in honor of Miss Esther Denny, the debutante daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Frank L. Denny, and her guest, Miss Orndorff, of Springfield, Ill. The party rode to the theater in a large touring car, and after the show were Miss Ridgely's guests at supper. The guests were Miss Katherine Williams, of Chicago; Miss Miriam Crosby, Miss Margaret Symons, Miss Olga Converse, Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Isabelle Magruder, Miss Frederica Morgan, Miss Mary Southland, Lieut. and Mrs. John W. Timmons, Austin Kibbee, A. Clemons, Dan Duncan, James F. Archibald, Charlie Wilson, Frank Poe, Frank Ellis, Gould Lincoln, James Williams, Beale Bloomer, and Charles Howard.

The Comptroller of the Currency and Mrs. Ridgely chaperoned the party.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Lee Young and Aloysius Worthington Bowdoin will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jones, in Eighteen street. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Bowdoin's mother, the invitations for the wedding were recalled and only a small family party will attend the ceremony.

Chautauqua Circle, No. 1, will hold a meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the vestry rooms of the Eighth Street Temple, where it is hoped there will be a large attendance, as the meeting promises to be a most interesting one.

Judge Harry Goldman, of Baltimore, spent a happy day here this week.

Emanuel Simpson, of New York city, is spending a few days here, en route from the West.

The Bible class of the Council of Jewish Women met in the vestry rooms of the Eighth Street Temple, Tuesday afternoon, and was led by Rabbi Abram Simon.

Julian Baer, formerly of this city, who spent a few days here last week, has returned to his home in Charlotte, N. C.

Mrs. Sol Hecht and Miss Sabina Fenschel have returned to Baltimore after being in town several days.

Miss Helene, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Franc, of Fifth street.

COUNTLESS ANNA
COMING HOME

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Anna Gould, the former Countess de Castellane, will return to be United States within a few months. The statement was made by Frank Gould as he stood on the pier yesterday afternoon just before sailing for Europe.

Speaking of the trip he and his wife are making, he said: "We will go to Paris and visit my sister and bring her back to America with us, but we do not know that the French courts will allow her to take the children. This will be her first trip to her native land since her marriage."
